Dear Friends,

I am very honored by the fact that the Czech Traditional Fudokan-Shotokan Karate Federation was entrusted by the World Fudokan Federation with organizing the World Fudokan Championship for Children, Juniors and Seniors. The World Fudokan Championship is dedicated to the memory of Sensei Dan Stuparu. We honor his memory.

This is a very important act of recognition for both our federation and the entire sporting public, which we sincerely value. The personal presence of the President will certainly motivate all the athletes.

The official patronage of the World Fudokan Championship for Children was extended by Mgr. Jana Černochová, the Mayor of Prague 2. I would like to thank the Prague 2 district, which has kindly donated original medals for the children category, for the support. This year, we will also announce the Championship Fair Play Award, to be handed over personally by Mgr. Jana Černochová.

I would like to welcome Prof. Dr. Ilija Jorga, Soke 10 Dan, the founder of the Fudokan Karate, Mr. Rajeev Sinha, the President of the World Fudokan Federation, the competition judges lead by chief judge Prof. Dr. Vladimír Jorga, and the teams of the individual member countries. I believe all athletes will fight in the traditional spirit of the Fudokan Karate.

Finally, I would like to thank Mr. Slavomír Svoboda, the Chairman of the Czech Martial Arts Union, as well as all the sponsors and supporters of the Fudokan Karate, for their support. I am glad that a large number of our clubs have contributed to this championship. We all wish the World Fudokan Karate Championship a resounding success.

 MĚSTSKÁ ČÁST PRAHA 2

Je mi ctí, že se tato velká sportovní akce - 5. Mistrovství světa tradičního karate Fudokan - dětí, mládeže a dospělých koná v Praze 2, a to v největším sokolském areálu na světě. Touto cestou chci poděkovat pořadatelům, že si k jejímu uspořádání vybrali právě toto sportoviště na Královských Vinohradech. Je to místo s velkou historií a myslím, že mistrovství světa tradičního karate Fudokan je jednou z dalších událostí, která se do jejích dějin zapíše zlatým písmem. Mistrovství světa není jen o dospělých, ale své bojové umění předvedou také děti ve Světovém poháru mládeže. Mimo jiné budou soutěžit také o cenu fair play „Pohár starostky městské části Praha 2“ a já jsem velmi ráda, že jej budu moci osobně předat do rukou vítězů. Praha 2 se dlouhodobě snaží podporovat mládežnický sport, protože je to podle nás jedna z nejdůležitějších součástí života dětí. Skrze sport se zocelí, naučí se pravidlům a vstřebají určité morální hodnoty, které v životě jistě budou potřebovat. Naučí se být součástí týmu, ale také se naučí přijímat prohry, znovu vstát a nevzdávat se. Myslím, že právě karate je tím správným příkladem, protože rozvíjí nejen fyzické schopnosti, ale také ty mentální. Vychovává lidi čestné, upřímné a se zdravým sebevědomím. Budu jen ráda, pokud si další a další děti k tomuto sportu najdou cestu a mohu slíbit, že tyto aktivity budu jako starostka městské části Praha 2 podporovat.

Mgr. Jana Černochová
starostka městské části Praha 2

I'm honored that such a major sporting event - the 5th World Fudokan Karate Championship for children, juniors and seniors - takes place in the Prague 2 district, in the biggest Sokol site in the world. I would like to use this opportunity to thank the organizers for selecting the Královské Vinohrady (Royal Vineyards) location. It is a location with rich history and I believe that the World Fudokan Karate Championship will become a part of that history written in gold letters.

The World Championship does not aim only at adults - children will also demonstrate their martial art prowess in the Children World Karate Cup. Among other trophies, they will also compete for Prague 2 Mayor's Fair Play Cup - and I will be very happy to personally hand over the cup to the winners. Prague 2 has a long-term policy of supporting junior sport activities, which we see as one of the most important aspects of a child's life. Sport helps children grow stronger, learn to respect rules, and absorb moral values that will be useful later in life. They will learn to be team players, but also to accept defeat and keep trying without giving up. I believe karate is a good example here, because it develops not only the physical prowess, but also the mental skills. It raises honest and sincere people with healthy self-esteem. I will be glad if more and more children are attracted to this sport and, as a Mayor of Prague 2, I promise to support such activities.

Mgr. Jana Černochová,
Mayor of Prague 2

Tradiční karate Fudokan Prof. Dr. Ilija Jorga, Soke 10 Dan

zakladatel tradičního karate Fudokan (1980)

Tři ideogramy slova Fudokan znamenají stabilitu, tvrdost a domov. V překladu je tedy Fudokan „dům stabilních základů“. Tradiční Karate Fudokan založil Dr. Ilija Jorga v roce 1980 společně s několika podobně smýšlejícími lidmi, pod mezinárodní organizací Fudokan Karate Do Renmei .

Dr. Ilija Jorga vzpomíná na tento významný moment následovně: „Oficiální založení Fudokanu bylo vymezeno s „malým“ obřadem, to už je dávno 15. listopadu v roce 1980. Bylo podepsáno prohlášení o založení Fudokan podle mých nejstarších žáků, přátel a podobně smýšlejících lidí a Fudokan vyrazil do světa, opravdu na začátku tiše bez velké okázalosti.“ Deklarace o založení Fudokan karate podepsali Dr. Ilija Jorga, Dr. Vladimir Jorga, a tehdejší studenti: Zurab Merabesvili, Nadev Venceslav, Soebajo Rachmy, Haki Kosar, Dan Stuparu.

Dr. Ilija Jorga, zakladatel karate Fudokan, během své bohaté soutěžní činnosti dosáhl řady nejvyšších ocenění na evropských a světových soutěžích. Vedle aktivního cvičení se věnuje rozsáhlé publikační činnosti. Ve svých knihách přesně definuje podstatu a základy tradičního karate Fudokan: „Tradiční karate Fudokan je spojeno s tradicí a sebeobranu . Každý pohyb je vykonáván s úsilím o fyzickou, psychickou a duchovní jednotu. Pokud má mít realizovaná technika maximální efekt, je třeba ji provádět s přísnou kontrolou vlastních emocí a fyzických dispozic, dále pak je nezbytně nutná i mentální kontrola protivníka. Schopnost kontroly je důkazem sebedůvěry, která se dá získat dlouholetým cvičením“.

Traditional Fudokan Karate Prof. Dr. Ilija Jorga, Soke 10 Dan

Founder of the Fudokan Karate (1980)

The three ideograms of Fudokan stand for stability, hardness and home. In translation, Fudokan is “a house of solid foundations”. The Traditional Fudokan Karate was founded by Dr. Ilija Jorga in 1980, together with several similarly-minded people, under the umbrella of Fudokan Karate Do Renmei.

Dr. Ilija Jorga recalls this important moment: “Officially, Fudokan was established with little ceremony on November 15, 1980 – a long time ago. The founding declaration was signed by a group of my oldest students, friends and similarly-minded people and Fudokan set out into the world – initially this was really quiet, with little pomp.” The founding declaration was signed by Dr. Ilija Jorga, Dr. Vladimir Jorga, and then-students Zurab Merabesvili, Nadev Venceslav, Soebajo Rachmy, Haki Kosar, Dan Stuparu.

Dr. Ilija Jorga, the founder of Fudokan, has collected a number of European and World Awards in his rich competition career. Besides actively practicing karate, he is also publishing – in his books, he accurately defines the essence and basics of the Fudokan Karate: “The Traditional Fudokan Karate is connected to tradition and self defense. Each movement is made with the goal of achieving physical, mental and spiritual unity. For a technique to have the maximum effect, it must be executed with a strict control of one’s emotions and physical abilities. A mental domination of the opponent is also required. This ability is a proof of self-confidence that can be gained by long-term practice.”

Česká federace tradičního karate Fudokan si v letošním roce 2013 připomíná 20.výročí založení tradičního karate Fudokan v České republice. Od počátku stojí v čele federace Sensei Rachmy Soebajo, zastává funkce prezidenta, vede trenérsko metodický úsek a reprezentaci. Za dvacet let činnosti federace bylo dosaženo řady sportovních úspěchů na národní i mezinárodní úrovni a to především díky obrovskému nadšení a zaujetí pro tradiční karate ze strany našich členů.

První velkou soutěží pod mezinárodní organizací Fudokanu – IFKR, které jsme se zúčastnili, bylo I. Mistrovství Evropy tradičního karate Fudokan seniorů v roce 1993, v Polsku, a následně I. Mistrovství Evropy tradičního karate Fudokan juniorů v Maďarsku. Již v dalším roce 1994 jsme uspořádali II. Mistrovství Evropy tradičního karate Fudokan seniorů v Praze. Tento úspěšně uspořádaný šampionát odstartoval další sérii evropských soutěží Fudokanu v České republice, za poslední období (1994-2013) jsme u nás uspořádali již deset Mistrovství Evropy pro různé věkové kategorie.

V letošním roce pořádáme Mistrovství světa fudokan karate. Na tento šampionát se poctivě připravovali naši zkušení reprezentanti, ale také i nejmenší děti, které poprvé nastoupí na tak významné soutěži. Všichni dostali možnost porovnat své schopnosti na nejvyšší mezinárodní soutěži a přejeme všem zúčastněným, aby Mistrovství světa bylo úspěšné.

Czech Traditional Fudokan-Shotokan Karate Federation

20 Years of Traditional Fudokan Karate in the Czech Republic

This year, the Czech Traditional Fudokan Karate Federation celebrates 20 years since introducing the Traditional Fudokan Karate in the Czech Republic. From the very beginning, the federation is lead by Sensei Rachmy Soebajo, the federation president, also responsible for the training methods and coaching the representation. In its 20 years, the federation has achieved many successes on both national and international level, thanks especially to the enthusiastic support of our members.

The 1st Traditional Fudokan Karate Championship for Seniors in 1993 in Poland and the 1st Traditional Fudokan Karate Championship for Juniors in 1993 in Hungary were the first major event under the auspices of the international Fudokan governing body, IFKR, that we have participated in. In the very next year, we have organized the 2nd Traditional Fudokan Karate Championship for Seniors in Prague. This successful championship has opened a series of European level events in the Czech Republic – from 1994 to 2013, we have already organized 10 European Championships for various age categories.

This year, we organize the World Fudokan Karate Championship. Both our experienced athletes and our youngest members, who will compete in such an important event for the very first time, have been preparing themselves dutifully. All will have an opportunity to test their skills at the highest international level. We wish all participants a successful World Championship.

Judges in Fudokan karate Obligation of keeping their own dignity of profession

In the cause of the wider range of ideas, homogeneity of oriented engagement of karate judges in Fudokan karate - judges must have a crystal clear knowledge of their function, importance and ethics. Existing rules of fighting and judging in Fudokan Karate above all require a thorough introduction, adoption and equal interpretation of the same! It is their primary obligation of protecting the dignity of their profession, but also personal dignity of Fudokan fighter and his honor. In a word, they have a solemn duty and the ideal of his their own honor, by taking, before all, a great responsibility and risk.

Own denial and lack of knowledge of judicial rules and judicial obligations, as well as the honor in Fudokan karate, treated and will treat always as their own moral deficiency, especially as it can be and it is very often the cause of great misunderstandings and damages in Fudokan, but also the cause of personal sport tragedy of young people!

This is why the constant training and skills updating is necessary in order to better meet the needs of the trial but also the demands of the supreme good of Fudokan, the ideal of honor in such a unique martial art. Only in Fudokan karate a court of honor exists, which takes a judges and confirms the deeds done by judges.

Personal, family, religious, tribal, national, or any other moment (interest) of the judge , no matter if Kansa Sushin or Fukushin, cannot have any effect on his trial. His current and true decision must be correct because of it largely depends the sport life, honor and sport moral - in short, the fate of any competitor, of any age and sex, of any territory as well as any other nations and race of belonging!

I am aware of the fact that the judge profession has always had a special status in Fudokan karate, especially as it has always regarded as a powerful social status - not only the profession in sport.

According to its reputation, it is at the top of the interpretation of ethical and moral principles of the most valuable moral category in Fudokan - the honor!

In their work, judges must be guided by the interests of proclaimed rules of combat and trial, but also the general moral elitism in Fudokan.

If failures occur in the performance of any category of judges (Sushin , Fukushin or Kansa), if it takes with it the consequences and bad deed, then the sentences imposed by a court of honor to him are far more severe depending on the function performed as well as the current position in the act of the trial, however, more than the actors themselves fighting - athletes! The principle of independence of the judicial „power“ categorically dictates, or more than likely causes the formation of a completely separate organization and organized structures that would exclusively engage in the trial in Fudokan karate federation of the world. During sparring- that is, sport combat, under any reason the outcome of the match cannot be brought into question! In the case of repeated mistake, the judges may be deprived of their profession - which only confirms in what extent the profession of judges is very important in Fudokan for the implementation of the principles and application of the rules of judging and fighting.

Professional ethic and the ideal of awarded justice is achieved by establishing a true and objective trial - it is the very substance and essence of the code of conduct in Fudokan, and thus makes it a strong granite house - of stable foundation! Then, its more than likely Fudo-kan-karate-do, just as the home of stable emotions and morality!

Fighting of spirits - Tsume-ai

Definition:

Tsume-ai implies a very specific form of martial arts, based on the Bushido code of conduct and principles of Budo. Conflict involves two fighters, where there is a presentation and overall physical and mental mindset in solving the outcome of the struggle by setting a single blow realized in the complete absence of judges and their subjective decision-making, which is, indeed, very often present in the arenas of karate.

Judges, often managed by diverse interests, but also with the emotions or ignorance, can easily make victory into defeat and defeat other way around - unaware of the consequences that such a decision may carry on the contestants. Confronted fighters are in this case equal on the tatami as anywhere! It is a unique form of combat which cannot otherwise be seen in the entire world of karate styles and karate organizations and it is evident that this is specific form of combat, typical only in Fudokan karate. This essential form of appearance is the embodiment of the concept and essence of Budo and Budo skills demonstrated through a tradition of the samurai. This form of „conflict“, that is, Bushido duel between the two fighters left to fate, two extremely determined samurai ready to receive the same calm judgment of fate, „when they need to live - to live and when to die - die,“ says the Prince Mito. In our case, in the 21st century, it is the duel of two competitors, but certainly not of any ordinary human, technical, physical or mental set, it is primarily the so-called level - Kurai! According to Sensei Nishiyama - Kurai is defined as not only the highest level of competitive spirit, physical fitness, but in terms of the total human potential. Competitors are extremely equally determined to take into their own hands the fate and outcome of the „duel“. The outcome of the match cannot affect any outside factor or at least not a subjective judge decision. Judges are just silent observers! In the base of this happening - this form of martial arts, the overall age-old tradition of Bushido Code and Budo is woven into it.

Way of behaving, thinking, conscious and unconscious phenomena of comprehending the environment - ourselves and opponent, expressed in a single postulate - in one principle, in one breath, the first and the last, which solves the same conflict. „One step - one death“ - Ikkeu Shiatsu, prof. Suzmei would add: „On the uplifted sword that threatens to behead you and ends up your life - go forward and the gates of heaven will open up on you!“ Certainly, the death is absolutely impossible in the conditions of the 21st century karate - they are extremely serious actions at the level of the subconscious knowledge but if the arms and legs would be replaced with katana - everything would be different!

Civilized behavior, self-judging, does not give us the right to think of one point almost impossible and incomprehensible form of conflict today, where the outcome of one battle was the death of one or both opponents. In karate, judges can decide it is a draw in the outcome of a match of two competitors - Hiki wake. In Budo something like that absolutely does not exist! To be precise the dual blow of the katana of two opponents - only mean one thing - the death of both warriors. Life or death caused by the samurai crossing the „Bridge of Life“ - as it is often emphasized in an otherwise scarce Budo literature where life or death ends on a thin thread - a fraction of the time, one breath or one step. Many forms of martial arts in the past, however, were ritual, revealing the inherent ethics, rules of conduct and moral responsibility.

Procedure of awarding Tsume-ai

After the expiration of regular match time and extra extension (kettei-sen) the result is unresolved, that is without any awarded points, as the rule in Kumite the judges must decide by ballot. In Fudokan the competition continues in the form of Tsume-ai. In case of Tsume-ai the judges return to their seats and Sushin declares Tsume-ai match.

Protocol, gestures and forms of Tsume-ai rules

Sushin addresses to Fukushins by calling Hantei and Fukushins at that request of Sushin connect flags facing them to the ground. Sushin open hands at shoulder height palms facing out - summons the judges to himself on his left and right side - to continue his movement parallel to the front (similar like hitting tateshutouchi), directs the two remaining judges to walk to each other and then all together go down in zazen facing competitors.

At the command of Sushin - Hajime, competitors begins Tsume-ai fight - one attack. There is no limit in time for attack. The only requirement for winning is speed, strength, power, body dynamic, precision, distance and form.
